Some Hard Hitting.

Hard and sequential hitting brought about the fall of the Cardinals yesterday. The Giants tore into Williams, the Cardinal pitcher, at the start and maced him for three runs before he had half a chance to settle into a stride, and they got after him for two more hits in the fourth which produced a tally. In the fifth Larry Doyle attended to the scoring of snother run, utilizing his triple and a long fly by Eddic Roush.

The work of the Giants found favor
